LUZ IN 60 SECONDS · FOR SHADI

Light in a tin.

LUZ (rebrand of Milonga, same foundation) sells the mate moment — slow down, share, be present — in a Vanilla Mate Latte: 100 mg mate caffeine, 500 mg Lion's Mane, 200 mg L-theanine. Creamy, 30 seconds, hot or iced. $34.99 · 15 servings. Tagline, everywhere, final: Golden Clarity.

Look

Gold tin, forest Didone serif, el monte treeline band, el Sol symbol. Shelf reads gold first where competitors are blue, black or jungle-yellow. Gold = metallic ink/foil in print, flat #E3BC62 on screen.

Palette

Forest · Gold · Leaf · Beige · White. Never invent a hex.

Type

Bodoni Moda (display) + Hanken Grotesk (everything else). Both free (SIL OFL), in Canva & Klaviyo. The LUZ wordmark is drawn, never typed.

Voice

The Argentine friend at the table. "You" more than "we". One Spanish word per piece (che, ronda, sobremesa). "Supports", never "boosts". Funny, never mean.

Imagery

Golden hour is the signature. Polished mode for site/email/Amazon; raw phone-shot mode for TikTok/creators. People mid-moment, ritual visible. Never clinical, never jungle, never cannabis-adjacent.

Hard no's

Too wellness · too serious · too cheap. No echo of the old THC cans. No health claims — regulatory flags live in the packaging folder before anything prints.

Full system: brand book (04_brandbook/index.html + PDF) · logo kit SVG/PNG · tokens.json · packaging flats on placeholder dieline · email/social/ad templates · 17-prompt imagery bank. LUZ standalone; "Milonga Life Corp" survives as the legal line only. Pass it on.
